

THE RACCOLTA TABLE

The raccolta table in oak | whitewash (oiled)

DESCRIPTION

An oak and wrought iron trestle table inspired by the simple furniture found in the abandoned chapel of C16th Villa Raccolta.

Made to measure to ensure your raccolta table fits your space perfectly. The classical silhouette of the raccolta table is very versatile, looking just as beautiful narrow or wide

Our raccolta table is typically made in solid oak. Whitewash and greywash finishes give the table a more relaxed and time worn feel, and our darker fumed finishes evoke the richness of early Italian furniture.

The nineteenth century wrought iron stretchers of the raccolta table are made from original estate fencing and add genuine patina and history to a classical design.
